ABOUT THIS GUIDE

This guide is designed to help you through the planning process, one task at a time. We have created this for groups in any stage of planning and with any length of lead time. We have broken up the sections into Sections and Steps, which will help keep you organized and on track.

TIPS FOR NAVIGATING THE GUIDE:

- Follow the guide in order. With over 400 Celebrations of Life planned, we find the most success with the order we have laid out.
- Take your time with reading and planning. Send this guide to others in your planning group so they can help with decision making or generating ideas
- We are here to help! If you have purchased this guide, you can book a one-hour consultation at 25% off of our regular price - a $25 savings. Visit this link to access the discounted rate.

CREATING YOUR VISION

Before you begin the planning process, we encourage you to take some time to reflect on the person you are honouring with this event:

How would they have liked to be celebrated?

What aspects of their life could be incorporated into this event to create a personalized tribute?

Thinking on these questions can help you think of important details you can incorporate into your event to ensure your celebration vision is fulfilled.

This vision will guide you through the planning process, allowing you to focus on the key points to ensure a successful and authentic event.

ABOUT NEW NARRATIVE EVENTS

New Narrative Events is an event planning company that has specific expertise in Celebration of Life events. We have worked on over 400 events that have ranged in size and planning time.

The authors are event professionals who understand how to coordinate a meaningful event in a short time frame.

The authors are technical directors who take pride in creating a seamless experience.

The authors are virtual experts who simplify the technical elements so your guests can see and hear the ceremony perfectly.
